EPISODE 1

PANEL 1

CLAIR and GRACE are walking into a library, the two looking in different directions as they are looking for someone in the library.

CLAIR
See her anywhere?

GRACE
No.
(pause)
Wait, there she is.

PANEL 2

EMILY is sitting at a table, silently reading a book that looks like a textbook. CLAIR and GRACE and a distance behind her, approaching the table where she is sitting. GRACE is waving a hand and calling out to EMILY.

GRACE
(waving)
Hey Em, whatcha reading?

PANEL 3

EMILY is looking at them as GRACE is placing her bag on the table, getting ready to sit down in the chair behind her. CLAIR is already sitting in the chair, peeking over at EMILY's book curiously.

CLAIR
Yeah, what are you reading? It doesn't look like a regular book.

PANEL 4

EMILY is tilting the book to the side to show the spine of the book that shows it is actually a history textbook she is flipping through.

EMILY
The library got a new set of history textbooks.

CLAIR
History books?

PANEL 5

GRACE and CLAIR are leaning close to each other to loudly whisper about EMILY who tightened her grip around the book but doesn't look up from the book.

GRACE
Cool.
(whispering)
She will read anything. Textbook, book-book, you name it.

PANEL 6

EMILY is looking up from the textbook, frowning at her friends who are rolling their eyes at her stern expression.

EMILY
I like reading and learning, Grace, sheesh, no need to judge you know.

PANEL 7

GRACE is holding her hands up defense, smiling as though they had just shared a joke.

GRACE
I didn't say there was anything with it.
(pause)
Actually, we're here to ask you if you've read anything that has some good ghost stories. It's for a haunted house, we thought you'd know where we could find some.
(pause)
Oh! We're also looking for any books that have information about some places around town.

PANEL 8

EMILY places the book open on the table, leaning back into her chair as she thinks deeply about it.

EMILY

You'll probably have to go to the town archive for that.

PANEL 9

EMILY gets up, pulling the strap of her bag over her shoulder, the textbook held to her chest tightly as she gets up from her chair.

EMILY

Come on, I'll go with you.

PANEL 10

EMILY is walking down the nearest book shelf, looking over her shoulder to GRACE and CLAIR who are following behind her closely.

EMILY

We can look for some ghost stories before we go to archives.

CLAIR

Sure.

GRACE

Sounds like a plan.
